Mr. Ambrose Nuckolls, of Toone, attended the Ice Cream Supper at Mrs. Jane Warren's Friday night. He looks as young and pleasing as ever.

The Ice Cream Supper, given by the young boys, at Mrs. Jane Warren's Friday night last was quite a nice affair, so they say-we didn't get a bite.

Nice line of all kinds of Novels at Savage & Emerson's.

Dr. Hugh Tate and son, Wood, also Miss Mary Lou Bond, Dr. Tate's sister Miss Emma Tate who has been visiting Mr. Joe Tate, left Tuesday for North Carolina. The Star wishes them a pleasant trip.

A nice lot of Ladies and Misses Slippers just received at D. E. DURETT's.

Mrs. Bond, Mrs. Marx, and Misses Leah and Mamie Frank are visiting relatives and friends in town.

Col. John Kenny, who has been confined to his bed about two months with inflammatory rheumatism, is able to be on the streets again. The Star is happy to see him out again.

Col. A. F. Stinson, of Grand Junction, has just completed a beautiful wire net fence around the A. W. C. Lewis lot in the Union Cemetery. The Star would like to see more family burying grounds enclosed with this or some other substantial and ornamental fence.

Prof. J. M. Hubbard, principal of the city schools, at Jonesboro, Ark., is home again to spend vacation. The Prof. is a highly educated gentleman and a Nestor in the educational line.

The local editor is in receipt of a letter from Collin Co., Texas, stating that it has been continually raining there for weeks, and that the prospects for a crop is discouraging.

Rev. S. L. Jewel, pastor of the Methodist church, this city, will preach at the Inesane Hospital, Sunday the 1st inst. at 3:30 o'clock P. M. Everybody invited to attend. Mr. Jewel has preached there several times and had large congregations. May his untiring labors be abundantly blessed.

Mr. I. S. Simpson, an ex-Hardmanite, representing the Singer Sewing Machine Co., in Weakley county called on The Star Tuesday and renewed his subscription and said he couldn't do with out. This seems like sensible talk to us.

Mr. W. B. Shearin, long a prosperous merchant at Middleton, has purchased an interest in the Wholesale grocery house of M. C. Pearce & Co., at Memphis, and has moved his family there. He is well pleased with his new field, and every thing points to increased prosperity for him.

There is a company of fruit buyers, boxers, and shippers at Middleton. They have done a thriving business, and will do considerably more before the season closes.

There is talk of re-organizing the old base ball club at Middleton. There is some dandy material among the old members, they would be hard to rattle in a match game.

The Grand Junction base ball club went to Lucas, Miss. last Monday to do up the Iuka home club. The Grand Junction club got snowed under.

Messrs Ed Harrison and Walter Swink, of Medon, were flying around the girls here last Sunday and Monday.

The commencement exercises at Franklin Institute will soon occur. No better school can be found. Miss Murrell has demonstrated what a free school can be under wise management.

Mr. P. M. Robinson, of Clover-Fort called on us yesterday. He is one of the progressive farmers of our county. A few years since he purchased a farm that was thought to be worthless. The fields were covered with sedge grass, and water. He has now greenness and peace on that land until to-day it is as rich a farm as can be found in our country. He is surrounded by fine fat stock which he sells and trades. He has furnished his farm with a full outfit of modern farming implements, and has provided it with houses and shelter for tools and stock. He owes no man and has money ahead, and made it all on that farm with only one family of tenants.

50c In The Dollar.

Miss Maggie Park, daughter of Rev. J. S. Park, has arrived and will soon open school at Shandy.

Miss Maudie Mason, daughter of Carlington Mason, Esq., of Memphis, is visiting Miss Lizzie Fentress this week.

Master James Fentress, has returned from the Southwestern Presbyterian University, and his brother Master David Fentress is back from Bingham School. M. C. They will spend vacation at Shandy.

Col. J. W. Wilkes, of the 4th district, was in town Tuesday. He is prominently mentioned as a candidate for representative for this county. A genial gentleman, cultivated, gifted and true, he would fill any office with credit. The Colonel is one of the best farmers and stock raisers.

Two weeks ago every body was wishing for rain, in fact they have been murmuring all the Spring about its not raining. Strange as it may seem, they are complaining now because it has rained.

The present prospect for a crop in this county is better than has been for many years. While everything is small, it has been well cultivated and both corn and cotton have a good color which, of itself, insures a plentiful harvest, if the needed seasons continue.

Col. Frank Prewitt, one mile north of Middletonburg, has the best field of corn we have seen in the county on up-land. He is increasing not only the value of his land every year, but also, the staple and quantity of produce, by sowing clover and grasses and systematic farming.

Mr. R. H. Pizer, of district 8, and T. H. Harris, colored, near Bolivar presented this office with cotton blooms on the 23rd inst. Our esteemed and worthy townsman, Col. R. F. Ammons, handed us one the 25th.

The local editor had anticipated a pleasant time with those good citizens at the above named meeting, but they had changed their hour of meeting and he arrived in good time to be late.

Uncle Overton was on the streets Wednesday, peddling as he has been for many years past. Uncle "Obie" is said to be about 113 years old. He looks to be in good health and good for several years more in which to peddle chickens and eggs to his old customers. His mule seems to have renewed his youth.

Rev. Frederick Howard resigned the pastorate of the Central Baptist church, this city last Wednesday night. He stated that the church was not prospering as it ought, and that he thought, possibly his connection with his law suit here was the cause, and therefore his resignation. The church accepted it.-Jackson Dispatch.
